DEADLINE FOR UM CHARTER DAY AWARDS NOMINATIONS IS JAN. 9

MISSOULA --

The University of Montana is seeking nominations for three Charter Day awards. The deadline is Jan. 9.

Two awards named for former UM presidents and an alumni association service award will be presented Feb. 16 as part of UM's Charter Day activities. On that day, UM will observe the day, Feb. 17, 1893, when the Montana Legislature chartered UM.

The $100 Robert T. Pantzer Award will go to a Montanan who has helped create a more open and humane learning environment at UM. Pantzer was president of UM from 1966 to 1974.

The Neil S. Bucklew Presidential Service Award will honor a Montanan whose efforts have fostered a greater understanding of UM's needs and strengths throughout the state. The recipient may direct earnings for one year of endowed funds into a scholarship in the department of his or her choice. Bucklew was president of UM from 1981 to 1986.

The Montana Award will recognize a former UM student for serving the UM Alumni Association.

Submit nominations to the UM alumni office, Alumni Center, University of Montana, Missoula, MT 59812; 243-5211.
